~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

On August 19, 2019, this Court issued a Temporary Restraining Order and ordered Defendants Anthony Todd (Tony) Farmer, Hydro Brand, Inc. (“Hydro Brand”), Legends Basketball League (“LBL”) and Chyanne Jacomini (collectively, the “Defendants”) to show cause, if they had any, why a preliminary injunction should not be entered.

On stipulation of the parties and order of the Court, the TRO was extended through October 8, 2019 and the Order to Show Cause provided Defendants until September 20, 2019 to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue.

Defendants have failed to submit any response to the Order to Show Cause.

NOW, THEREFORE, good cause appearing, it is hereby ordered as follows:

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Defendants, including their members, agents, officers, attorneys, servants, employees, contractors, and representatives, in addition to any non-natural persons they control, are enjoined and restrained from doing any of the following, whether directly or indirectly:

1. Soliciting, requesting, or causing any individuals or entities to purchase shares of SHE stock or otherwise invest in SHE;
2. Disposing of, concealing, transferring, encumbering, dissipating, or distributing any funds received from individuals or entities that paid those funds for purpose of purchasing shares of SHE stock, including without limitation, the following investments received from:

- (a) Deborah Di Benedetto: $8,000.00
- (b) Richard Figueroa: $20,000.00

3. Issuing, transferring, or distributing any shares of Hydro Brand stock to individuals or entities that executed agreements to purchase shares of SHE stock with LBL or any other entity affiliated with Defendants.

Defendants having failed to respond to the Order to Show Cause, the Court further finds that they have waived and forfeited any right to require SHE to post a bond, and this Court therefore finds that good cause exists to excuse SHE from the requirement to post a bond.
